

JOY!

© Myles Bing 2001

There is joy, there is joy
In the presence of the Lord
There is joy, joy, joy

I'll open up my heart and let my praises out
To rise up to Your throne with a joyful shout
You're worthy of all praise
And God, I know You're great
I've come running to You Lord
I've come to celebrate!

The veil has been torn,
The stone's been rolled away
You rose up from the dead on the third day
Jesus, You're alive and you live forever more
You're the only way to Heaven
And You've Opened up the door!
