

ZACCHAEUS
© Myles Bing 2001

^{E7}
Zacchaeus is out of his tree
And it's all because of Jesus
Zacs' taxes will never be the same
^{A7 B7 E7}
And it's all because of Jesus

^{E7}
As Jesus passed through Jericho
Excited crowds stood row by row
But Zac was short and couldn't see
^{G A E7}
So he climbed up in a sycamore tree

^{E7}
Now, the people didn't like him much
'Cause their taxes are what made him rich
and sometimes as he walked the street
^{G A E}
behind his back they'd call him "cheat"

^{E7}
But, as Jesus passed beneath that tree
He said, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately,
Today I'm staying at your place
^{G A E7}
So come down, there's no time to waste."

^{E7}
Amazed the crowd began to mutter
And some were even heard to splutter
"He's eating with a total sinner
^{G A E7}
how could these two be sharing dinner?!"

^{E7}
But after lunch something had changed
The people said that it was strange
But just an hour or two with God
^{G A E7}
Can change even the hardest heart

^{E7}
He said, "Half of everything I own
Is going to the poorest homes
And I'm giving back four times more
^{G A E7}
Than everything I took before."